DISABILITY RIGHTS LEGAL SERVICE

Community Guidelines

We value the comments and contributions we receive on social media.

Our pages are a place to share legal information, service updates, disability rights information and community resources. We want this to be a safe, accessible and inclusive space for people with disability, families, carers, advocates, workers and community members.

Please follow these guidelines:

- Be respectful.
- Do not post abuse, threats, harassment or discriminatory comments.
- Do not share private information about yourself or another person.
- Do not name people involved in legal matters.
- Do not post misinformation or unsafe legal advice.
- Do not post spam, advertising or unrelated promotional content.
- Do not use ableist, racist, sexist, homophobic, transphobic or other discriminatory language.
- Do not post comments that may be defamatory.
- Do not post graphic, distressing or unsafe content.

We may remove or report posts, comments, or links that we consider breach these guidelines.

We retain the right to block a user whose posts or comments include any of the above.

The views, opinions, and information expressed in user-generated comments remain with the authors and do not necessarily reflect those of the Villamanta Disability Rights Legal Service Inc.

We cannot provide legal advice through social media comments or direct messages. If you need legal help, please contact us at legal@villamanta.org.au or via phone: 1800 014 111
